

Parking (H&O BUILDING)

We're glad to have you as our guest! Below, you'll find a guide to help you with parking and building access. Please review these instructions carefully to ensure a smooth arrival and stay.

The entrance for the garage is directly after the building that is painted with yellow wavy lines. Enter the code, then you can park anywhere that doesn't say Reserved. There is no charge or registration required.

H&O parking drive around building to alley, make a right past the building on 16th, then make another right into the alley. You may park in any available space.

Guest Registration Requirement: All guests using these parking spaces must scan the Parkeaz signage in the parking area and register as a guest each time you park to avoid potential citations. Register immediately when parking.

Scan this QR code to register (on the building itself):

The guest code for registration is provided in your check in instructions.

Once you are registered, enter through the brown gate on either side using the code. Then walk straight past pool and enter the building itself using the same entry code. This takes you to the 1st floor, navigate to your unit from there.

If you have any questions at all, please let us know. We look forward to hosting you soon!
